CHINESE ACCUSED OF CONTEMPT IS HALED TO COURT

Under an information sworn to by Attorney-General I. M. Stainback, Goo Wan Hoy, Chinese business agent and familiar figure about the local courts, has been summoned to appear in Circuit Judge Heen's court at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt.

The information alleges that on September 4, during the trial of the case of S. W. Nawahie against Goo Wan Hoy, an equity matter, the attorney for the petitioner offered in evidence a letter purporting to have been written by John Grace to W. G. Lee and that Goo Wan Hoy took possession of the letter, removed it, mutilated it and attempted to destroy it "with intent to prevent the said letter being used as evidence" and then and there maliciously to interfere with the proceedings of the court and to obstruct the administration of justice.

PLAN TO SPEND THOUSANDS ON PIER REPAIRS

Plans for the repair of Pier 16, to cost ultimately $50,000 or $60,000, are now under consideration of the harbor board, Chairman W. A. Hobby announced today.

Owing to the nature of the work specifications cannot be made to allow for the calling of bids. It has been decided therefore to contract for the material and hire the labor directly through the harbor board. The first work will be the placing of new piles and deck structure.

In places it is now impossible to load or unload freight on the wharf. Some of the material needed is now being advertised for.

WHITE PLAGUE VICTIMS INCREASE 56 PER CENT IN BERLIN THIS YEAR

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)
COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Sept. 6.—That the dread white plague is taking a deep grip on the undernourished populace in Berlin is shown by statistics which have reached here.

During the month of March, April and May, says the report, deaths from tuberculosis in the German capital increased 56 per cent over the corresponding months of 1916.

PLAN TO AWAIT DISPOSITION OF INJUNCTION SUIT

City Attorney's Office Thinks It May Settle Points Which Will Make Mandamus Suit Against Mayor Unnecessary

That the board of supervisors has as much say-so in the management of city affairs as the mayor, is one of several questions which the city attorney's office expects to see settled with the disposition of the injunction suit brought by L. L. McCandless to hold up the pay of A. K. Vierra, park and playground superintendent.

"And we may be able to satisfy the Democrats on this point," declared Deputy City Attorney Albert M. Cristy today.

Meanwhile the city attorney's office is holding off the mandamus suit which it expects to bring to compel Mayor J. J. Fern to sign the payrolls that have been approved and passed by the supervisors. Whether it will be filed or not now depends largely on the outcome of the McCandless injunction.

"If this office cannot convince the Board on its merits," Attorney Cristy continues, "then we can try to get a ruling which may bind them."

The McCandless injunction suit is scheduled to come up in Circuit Judge Ashford's court Saturday on the question of whether a temporary injunction should be issued holding up Vierra's salary.

"The idea of mandamus proceedings would be to compel the mayor to certify that the board of supervisors has passed the payrolls, and this is the only purpose. If they are certified then the auditor, unless enjoined, certainly has the right to go ahead and pay the salaries."

"The injunction suit now pending will settle to some extent the legal right of certain items to be on the payroll; that is, the legal right of the 11 appointive heads of city departments to draw their pay in the face of the claim that, being Republican holdovers, they are not legally in office."

AFTER THE RACES GO TO HEINIE'S

The popular expression this evening will be, "Meet us at Heinie's Tavern, on the beach at Waikiki," after the races. That makes a most enjoyable evening—see the races and then come out to Heinie's and talk it all over. Between dances everybody is telling how it should have been done. Come on out and bring your friends and express your own opinions of Neptune's sons and daughters.—Adv.

ACTION TO FREE TEACHERS GOES OVER TO MONDAY

Habeas Corpus Will Determine Whether Pedagogues Are Liable to Deportation

Habeas corpus proceedings for the release of five Japanese teachers from the federal immigration station which were to have been heard this morning by Federal Judge Horace W. Vaughan, were postponed until next Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Attorney Wade Warren Thayer, counsel for the Japanese, has been busy looking up authorities to substantiate his contentions. It is held that when the teachers came here from Japan to teach in the Hongwanji mission, without specific contract relative to what they would be paid for their services, they could not be considered as having come here on contract.

Richard L. Halsey, federal immigration inspector, claims that these teachers admitted to him at the examination held in the immigration station that they came to Hawaii at the instance of Rev. Y. Inamura, and were certified by the local Japanese consul-general, Mr. Halsey holds that the teachers are liable under the contract law.

HAWAII ON MAP IN CALIFORNIA, SAYS C. A. DOYLE

Chester Doyle, who recently returned from the mainland, has a good deal to say for the many Californians who were ideal hosts during his stay in San Francisco. He brings back word that James Woods, manager of the St. Francis Hotel, has made plans for the erection of a semi-tropical dining room which will cost about $200,000.

"This dining room should do much to boost Hawaii," says Mr. Doyle. "It will be carried out in a true style of Hawaii and other lands, and inasmuch as 'Jim' Wood is a real booster for Hawaii, you can depend upon it that there will be an opportunity for publicity that will do much to place Hawaii on the map."

"We all had a wonderful time at Bohemian Grove. The Bohemian Club held an outdoor play at their summer home which cost $22,000 to stage. The play was written by Templeton Crocker and Joe Redding. It was one of the biggest events ever held in the social life of California."

"Hawaii has a number of good friends in San Francisco, and James Woods, J. Walter Scott and Fred Halton are three men who are doing much to boost Hawaii in California. Mr. Woods has worked wonders because he has been able to gather capable lieutenants around him. Hawaii is on the map in California for fair," he concluded.
